Near Greenwich in Cumberland County on the north bank of the Cohansey River stands a brick house erected in 1701. Though known as the DAVID SHEPHERD HOUSE, it was built by his father JOSEPH. Exactly which JOSEPH this was is unclear but he was undoubtedly a grandson of DAVID and RACHEL.

JAMES died 1690 in Fenwick Colony, Salem County, NJ. 2 children, both probably born in NJ:

2) THOMAS SHEPPARD: married ANN WAUSBOUGH. Story is continued in a separate section.

3) DAVID SHEPPARD: married EVE WALLEN in 1673 in County Tipperary, Ireland. They moved to Shrewsbury Neck in Fenwick's Colony; the area is now just south of the Borough of Shiloh a couple miles west of Bridgeton, NJ. The forerunner of the Cohansey Baptist Church was located on land that DAVID donated in 1683; the Killingsworth Baptist Church moved about the time they were formally constituted in 1690 and adopted the Cohansey name. 1687 Sept. 20. Deed. William WORTH of Shrewsbury, East Jersey, planter, by his attorney William MYERS of Burlington, butcher, to David SHEPHEARD, now sojourning at Burlington, husbandman, for one half of 500 acres at Chohansey in Fenwick's Colony, granted to him March 4, 1687-8. (The NEW JERSEY COLONIAL RECORDS: Volume 21 Calendar of Records 1664-1703, p.144; Salem Deeds, No. 4, p. 589) DAVID died 20 November 1695. They are thought to have had the following children:

- a) RUTH SHEPPARD: married THOMAS ABBOTT in Salem County, NJ. RUTH died before the start of 1715 in Cohansey. THOMAS died about December 1718 in Cohansey, Salem County, NJ. 4 daughters reported:
- b) EVE SHEPPARD:² born 1685 [NOTE: year of birth as stated is same as the year of birth for d) ELIZABETH] in Cohansey, Cumberland County, NJ; in 1701 she married DICKASON SHEPPARD (born 1685) in Cohansey, Cumberland County, NJ, son of JOHN and MARGARET SHEPPARD. DICKASON's death has been noted as "1741-42" and "28 November 1749" in Cohansey, Cumberland County, NJ and EVE died on 12 March 1750 in Newport, Cumberland County, NJ. 8 children.
- c) DAVID SHEPPARD JR.: married SARAH VICKERS in 1719 in NJ. 5 children.
- d) ELIZABETH SHEPPARD:³ born 1685 [NOTE: see b) EVA] in Cumberland County, NJ; married ENOCH SHEPPARD (born 1684) in 1704, son of JOHN and MARGARET. ENOCH died before October 1718 in Cumberland County, NJ. ELIZABETH died in 1742. 6 children more West of the first. 1691-2 Feb. 17. Assignment by Jonathan WALLING to John SHEPHERD, both of Salem Co., yeomen, of all his rights &c. to 150 acres, being the remainder of the 500 acre tract that John bought 150 acres from on 29 Sept. 1690. (The NEW JERSEY COLONIAL RECORDS: Volume 21 Calendar of Records 1664-1703; Salem Deed Bk. 5) JOHN died 6 October 1710 in Back Neck, near Cohansey, Cumberland County, NJ. MARY died 1714. 9 children tentatively identified:

He may have acted as pastor of the mother-church at Cohansey after the death of its leader, MR. JENKINS, on 2 June 1754. In April 1756, REVEREND ROBERT KELSAY became Pastor of the Cohansey church. He and JOB had been ordained at the same time and were best of friends. JOB died 2 or 27 March 1757 in Salem, Salem County, NJ. 13 children.
